++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry with sunny periods developing.

Today:
An improving picture, becoming bright with sunny spells despite the rather cloudy morning with still a few lingering drizzly showers. Some afternoon sunshine for all, although staying cloudy around the Aberdeen coast. Light winds. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining quite settled for the evening and overnight, a few showers may skirt with the coasts but generally dry with some clear spells and light winds. Chillier than lately. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Monday:
A dry and bright day with sunny spells, southeasterly winds strengthening a little in the afternoon and perhaps more cloud developing later. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Cloudy at first Tuesday, some outbreaks of rain around the Aberdeen coast. A few showers later Tuesday and Wednesday but sunshine too. Strengthening winds on Thursday, cloud spreading in later.
